

UNIVERSITY NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATION

Aurora University (the “University”) is committed to providing a learning, working and living environment that promotes personal integrity, civility and mutual respect. Aurora University does not discriminate, or tolerate discrimination against any member of its community on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex/gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, religion, disability, pregnancy, veteran status, marital status, familial status, genetic information, or any other status protected by applicable federal, state or local law in matters of admissions, employment, or in any aspect of the educational programs or activities it offers, as required by the Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (race, color, and national origin); Title I of the Education Amendments of 1972 (sex); Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (disability); Age Discrimination Act of 1975 (age); and any other applicable local, state, and federal laws.

The University also provides reasonable accommodations and other services to students and employees with disabilities when modifications are required to provide access to the University’s educational programs and activities. More information regarding requesting accommodations is available at <https://aurora.edu/dro> or by emailing disabilityresources@aurora.edu.

The University has designated the Vice President for Student Life to coordinate its compliance with Title IX Section 504, the Age Discrimination Act, and other discrimination laws. Inquiries about policies and the laws addressing discrimination and/or harassment may be directed to:
